BIRMINGHAM, Mich.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--OneStream, a leading provider in corporate performance management (CPM) solutions for the world's leading enterprises, has been recognized as a Leader in the Gartner Magic Quadrant for Financial Planning Software¹. Gartner evaluated 14 financial planning software providers based on their ability to execute and completeness of vision and placed OneStream in the Leaders Quadrant.

"We are proud to be recognized as a Leader in the Gartner Magic Quadrant for Financial Planning Software. OneStream's success is built on our mission to ensure every customer is a reference, one success at a time. We believe this recognition reflects our strong momentum in the market and the value customers gain by adopting OneStream's unified, extensible platform to streamline their complex financial processes across planning, reporting and analytics," said Tom Shea, CEO at OneStream. "As Finance leaders navigate today's complex and changing business environment, OneStream provides the trusted data-backed insights for rapid decision making and improved financial and operational performance."

This news is OneStream's latest recognition this year. The company continues its strong momentum and growth in 2022. OneStream reported over $250 million in Annual Recurring Revenue (ARR), up over 60% year-over-year, in the first half of 2022 and expanded its customer base to over 1,000 customers globally.

Regina Crowder and Matthew Mowrey, Senior Director Analysts, and Farrah Watson, Director Analyst, wrote in the Magic Quadrant for Financial Planning Software, "Financial planning software is at the forefront of finance modernization efforts. It has taken this prominent position as CFOs and FP&A leaders assume a leading role in driving more agile, accurate and continuous companywide planning, with the aspiration to become valued strategic business partners to the rest of the enterprise."
