ROCHESTER, Mich.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--OneStream Software, a leader in corporate performance management (CPM) solutions for the world's leading enterprises, and PwC Romania announced today they have entered into a strategic alliance for the Romanian market. The partnership will leverage PwC's expertise as a leading business and technology consulting services provider and OneStream's unified and cloud-based CPM software to support activities ranging from project delivery to marketing and strategic business collaboration.

"Romania is an important market for OneStream Software, and we are excited to welcome PwC Romania to our partner ecosystem," said Stephanie Cramp, VP of Global Alliances at OneStream Software. "We look forward to working with PwC to help organizations in Romania and across the EMEA region conquer complexity and transform their finance processes by leveraging our intelligent finance platform to replace multiple legacy applications, as well as point solutions and spreadsheets."

As part of the partnership, PwC Romania will further develop its OneStream implementation practice to serve joint customers in Romania and across the EMEA region. PwC Romania will also leverage its industry and domain expertise to create compelling industry-specific solutions with OneStream for clients across the market.

"The global health crisis had significantly disrupted operations and processes, especially related to finance. Therefore, it was imperative for businesses to adapt quickly to the new context of social distancing and teleworking and implement digital capabilities to continue safely and without interruptions. PwC Romania is advising clients on how to adopt digital innovations and implement the best technologies in order to master complex finance transformations. This partnership means new solutions for improving their businesses," said Gabriel Voicilă, Technology Partner, PwC Romania.

"We are thrilled about our alliance with PwC Romania, specifically due to the domain expertise and best practices this will bring to OneStream customers in this important market," said Matt Rodgers, Senior Vice President and EMEA Managing Director at OneStream Software. "This partnership will enable OneStream to extend its delivery capabilities in EMEA and supports our mission of delivering 100% customer success worldwide."
